

The Experience of Loss

This pair of hearts symbolically represents two individuals.

When two individuals enter into a relationship, they become part of each other.

When someone dies, the person remaining often feels as if he is missing part of himself. Whether you have lost a spouse, child, parent, grandparent, sibling, or other loved one, the experience that “part of me is missing” is very real.

HOVE.ORG | 800.272.2717