Green Business 2.0: Going Beyond Changing Light Bulbs and Recycling

A frequent speaker on the topic of corporate sustainability, Adam K. Ney, Assistant Director of Public Affairs, Connecticut Business and Industry Association, will tell you how more and more businesses are integrating green business principles into their operations, workforce, supply chain and culture and how it's helping their corporate image as well as their bottom line.

You will also discover:

- What companies are doing to enhance their current green initiatives.
- How to lower costs, eliminate waste and increase value.
- Best practices and current trends in corporate sustainability.
- How the ideas and concepts addressed can be easily implemented in the office as well as in your home.

Salisbury Bank is committed to offering educational programs to help you achieve your goals and prosper in your personal and professional lives.
